

LONG BIO

DAVIDE NARI, Italian saxophonist.

DAVIDE NARI has played in hundreds concerts as soloist, in chamber music concerts and symphonic orchestral productions in Italy and abroad (Switzerland, France, South Korea) and he has produced many CDs for important record companies. He has won many prestigious first prizes in national and international music competitions in soloist and chamber music sections and he has published his own arrangements for saxophone for the music publisher "Eufonia" and as independent publisher. He is regularly invited to hold saxophone masterclasses.

DAVIDE NARI currently teaches saxophone at the "G. Bruno" Musical High School in Albenga and he is the artistic director and saxophone teacher at the Musical Society "S. M. Immacolata" in Loano (SV). He has played with the "Carlo Felice" Symphony Orchestra in Genoa and the "Haydn" Symphony Orchestra in Bolzano during productions, musicals and symphony concerts conducting by M° W. Marshall, A. Chauhan, D. Smith and S. Lloyd.

In 2018 he played and taught as the only European teacher at the "1st Saxophone Camp" in Seoul, South Korea, together with international saxophonists (Hiroshi Hara, Ching-Shyan Yen, Brandon Jinwoo Choi e Seung-dong Lee). He played in 2016 in Celles-sur-Belle (Fra) for the "Souffl'en Deux-Sèvres" music festival organized by international fame quartet "Ellipsos".

In 2012 he graduated with full marks in saxophone at the Conservatory "N. Paganini" in Genoa, in 2014 he obtained the Second Level Academic Diploma (Master level, Music Performance) in saxophone with full marks at the same Conservatory and in 2015 he obtained the Second Level Academic Diploma (Master Level) in Chamber Music at the Conservatory "G. Nicolini" in Piacenza with full marks and Honors. He obtains the prestigious "LTCL" degree at "Trinity College of London". He's specialized in teaching methods, musical pedagogy and psychology.

He has attended music workshops held by Profs. Luigi Gallo, Nobuya Sugawa and many others; he also studied orchestral conducting and in 2017 he was selected as conducting student by M° Donato Renzetti for the Conducting Masterclass in Milan with the "I Pomeriggi Musicali" Symphonic Orchestra.

He was selected for the project "Studi per l'intonazione del mare" by S. Sciarrino organized by Teatro alla Scala and MilanoMusica. He was a soloist with the "Conservatory N. Paganini" Symphonic Orchestra in many theatres, like the "Carlo Felice" Theatre in Genoa and at the "Sala Verdi" in Milan. He has performed in National Premiere pieces written by contemporary composers, including the "Duo for Alto Saxophone and Cello" Op. 99 (N. Kapustin) with cellist Marco Decimo and the "Suite I" for solo saxophone (M. Mangani). He is currently member of the music chamber duo "Duo Brilliance", of the "Kinda Dukish Orchestra", of the "Trio Panamericano" and of the "Imperial Jazz Orchestra".

He has performed also jazz music with international level artists in important jazz festivals. He has collaborated also with the "Conservatory N. Paganini" Symphonic Orchestra, the "Sanremo" Symphony Orchestra, the "Opera Giocosa" in Savona and with artists such as Preston Duncan, Riccardo Zegna, Francesco Cafiso, Quatour Ellipsos, Hiroshi Hara, Seung-dong Lee, Brandon Jinwoo Choi, Pietro Tonolo, Gabriele Mirabassi, Dino Rubino, Enrico Zanisi, Giuseppe Andaloro and Andrea Bacchetti.

DAVIDE NARI is endorser artist of the brands "Légère Reeds" and "Silverstein Works".

SHORT BIO

DAVIDE NARI, Italian saxophonist.

DAVIDE NARI has played in hundreds concerts as soloist, in chamber music concerts and symphonic orchestral productions in Italy and abroad (Switzerland, France, South Korea), and he gives master classes.

He is winner of many national and international Music Competitions and he currently teaches saxophone at the "G. Bruno" Musical High School in Albenga and he is the artistic director and saxophone teacher at the Musical Society "S. M. Immacolata" in Loano (SV).

Davide Nari optined the degree in Saxophone at the "N. Paganini" Conservatory of Music in Genoa, the degree in Chamber Music at the "G. Nicolini" Conservatory in Piacenza (Italy) and the "LTCL" degree at "Trinity College" of London; he also studied orchestral conducting (M° D. Renzetti and others).

He has performed in National Premiere pieces written by contemporary composers and he has performed also jazz music with international level artists.

Davide is endorser artist of the brands "Légère Reeds" and "Silverstein Works".